FOCUS ASIA 25-27 MAY 2004
Place: Kulturen Museum, Hornsbergssalen

“The Role of Law in Contemporary Indonesian Society”
Professor Mason Hoadley
Lund University, Sweden

“Decolonizing Indonesian Historiography”
Professor Henk Schulte Nordholt
University of Amsterdam, The Netherlands

“Closing the Digital Divide: South-East Asia’s Path Towards a Knowledge Society”
Professor Hans Dieter Evers
University of Bonn, Germany

“Technological Intensities in East and South-East Asian Electronic Firms: Does Network Strength Matter?”
Professor Rajah Rasiah
United Nations University, Maastricht, The Netherlands

“Demographic Ageing in Japan and its Implications for Consumption”
Dr. Anja Walke
Institute of Asian Affairs, Germany

“China’s Consumer Revolution: Identity, Citizenship and Rights”
Professor Beverley Hooper
University of Sheffield, United Kingdom

“Japan’s Competitiveness: Setting or Rising Sun?”
Professor Cornelia Storz
University of Marburg, Germany

“Shaping the Future of Asia: Chiang Kai-Shek, Nehru and China-India Relations During the Second World War Period”
Professor Guido Samarani
University of Venice, Italy

“Cultural Heritage Policies in China”
Associate Professor Marina Svensson
Lund University, Sweden